

Ellis / Fodel Genealogy

Updated March 2010

Credits

The Ellis/Fodel legacy originated in Hardine, Lebanon with the Shehwen (Ellis), Deeb, and Fodel families. The Shehwen name has been identified in a Families of Hardine document found on the internet.

These families were Maronites. In 1860, the Hardine Maronites were plundered and massacred by Druze Moslems. As a result of persecution, emigration to the US began in 1886. The largest population of Hardine immigrants settled in Wilkes-Barre, PA.

Credits

Created and published by George (Butch) Fodel with a special thanks to ...

- Everyone who contributed information
- My cousins, Terri Woods Meushaw and Patti Woods Saunderson, for their assistance throughout the project
- My wife Linda for her critique and attention to detail
- Uncle Dave Fodel for his old photos
- My brother, Jeff Fodel, who served as the official photographer during the Family Reunions
- Our children for giving us a purpose to undertake this effort
- All the descendants who will maintain this record

Family Member

- Each family member is assigned to a slide. The slide includes a block diagram that shows the family member's history and current status
 - Red lines indicate marriages, civil partnerships, or personal commitments. A broken red line indicates a separation due to death, divorce, separation, etc.
 - Green lines indicate offspring
 - Yellow lines indicate siblings
 - Yellow boxes identify the top of the family tree for the particular slide
 - White boxes identify descendants
 - Blue boxes indicate that no additional information is currently available
- Click on highlighted links in text to review additional information (pictures or documents)
- Click on the link in the title to return to the parent
- Click on any name in the left frame to go to that slide
